CHARITABLE FUNDS

The Florida Association of Kennel Clubs, Inc. is a 501(c) (3) charitable organization. Your donation is tax deductible, assures assistance in the time of need, and is necessary for the protection of our dog fancy.

Canine Protection Fund

Your donation assists us to obtain and provide educational information to local, state, and federal officials regarding animal welfare and to work collectively with national organizations. This fund helps to spearhead projects gathering statistical data for health, reducing zoonotic diseases, population trends, and supporting the University of Florida Veterinary College and similar institutions.

Animal Relief Fund

Your donation will provide assistance to our member clubs and those in our dog fancy in the time of hardship and disaster, including but not limited to hurricanes, fires, and veterinary medical care when indicated.

Your support is appreciated to protect and preserve our fancy and pure breed dogs.

What We Stand For and What We Do

The purpose of the FAKC is to foster and enhance the welfare of purebred dogs and the dog fancy by any lawful means, including, but not limited to, the following:

1. Assisting and encouraging Florida organizations of dog fanciers to promote dog shows, performance events, matches, etc.
2. Providing a communications link between all clubs for dissemination of information, exchange of ideas regarding common problems, and coordinated action towards the common cause.
3. Educating the dog fancy and the general public of advances in canine care and the sociological ramifications of the sport.
4. Educating the general public to the advantages of purebred dogs, canine health and welfare, canine deportment standards, training, and canine population control.
5. Promoting humane treatment of all animal life.
6. Maintaining cognizance of local, statewide, and national trends which may affect the environment in which the fancy operates.
7. Supporting the college of Veterinary Medicine of the University of Florida and other similar institutions.
8. Protecting the rights of responsible dog ownership and reasonable regulation

The FAKC serves the state-wide community by:

1. Tracking legislative activities that impact dogs.
2. Publicizing the sport of dogs as practiced by the dog clubs of Florida.
3. Providing food, water, veterinary supplies, veterinary services, temporary homes, tracking (keeping account; staying informed), and assorted equipment for animals displaced by disasters, such as hurricanes, tornados, wildfires, man-made catastrophe, etc.
4. Serving as a source of reliable information for all who have questions and/or problems dealing with dogs.
5. Disseminating information on animal welfare, care and responsibility.
